Giving one's word – Matthew 2:28-32

One of the great things we can give another person is our word. It's easy to give our word. It doesn't cost anything, the cost comes later, if and when we honour our word.

Some people are very generous with their word. They will promise you the sun, moon and stars. But you can't rely on them. They don't really mean it. Their word proves worthless, their promises dissolve like salt in water. There is not one of us who has not experienced the pain of being let down by someone who failed to keep his/her word.

But there are others who are slow to give their word. They don't make promises easily, but when they promise, you can rely on them to honour it. How great it is to deal with such people.

In this weekend's Gospel the father asks his two sons to go and work in the vineyard, one of the sons gives an immediate 'yes', he gave his solemn word, but sadly didn't keep his word. He did not go!

The other also gave his word, saying he wouldn't go but change his mind and went. There is a lesson in this for all of us. We call ourselves Christians but outsiders sometimes accuse us of being hypocrites because our lives do not bear witness to the faith we profess with our lips. Sin does not necessarily imply doing something wrong. The greatest sin is not to do good: the sin of inactivity, of doing nothing.

We can learn from the son who said 'No' but later changed his mind. To change one's mind is generally regarded as a fault and a weakness. But this is not always the case. It takes humility to admit to one's mistake, and courage to put it right.

We can see the second son because he finally obeyed his father, is a lot better than the first. This parable teaches us that promises can never take the place of performance, and fine words can never be substitute for fine deeds. Faithfulness is one of the greatest and most necessary things in life. But faithfulness is costly. It is not an easy road. It demands unselfishness and a spirit of sacrifice

Even here on earth it brings great rewards in terms of growth, serenity and joy.

There are no such rewards for the unfaithful, no happiness at the end of the day for the one who gives his word but fails to honour it. But there is great joy for the one who gives his word and honours it.

It is said that a person is as good as his / her word. If that is so, then the question you and I might ask ourselves is: How good is my word?

Kind regards to one and all – Dean Peter

ST MARY'S SCHOOL REFURBISHMENT FOR DROP OFF AND PICK UP OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Work will start the first Monday of the holidays. During the September holiday's the administration building including the staff room, sickbay, and all the offices are to be demolished. The new administration will operate from the library as will sick bay and the staff room will be at the back of the open area.

Entrance to the school will be via the library back door and the doors near the art room. Foundation will be able to enter via the outside door. We ask that you bear with us with these inconveniences.

Father Peter has offered us the use of the cathedral driveways to create a stop and drop zone during the building process but it is not a parking zone.

This zone will operate for morning (8.30-8.50) and afternoon (3.15- 3.40) drop off and pick up, strictly no parking, until further notice.

If you are walking your child into school, please use the usual parking around the school and not this zone.

We ask that you become familiar with how this will work. It will be a one-way zone with traffic entering from Reeves Street entrance and exiting via the highway exit. A reminder that there is no parking in the cathedral grounds and cathedral carpark. It is extremely important that we all take extra care to keep all our children safe and all the community.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel 18:25-28

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: 'You object, "What the Lord does is unjust." Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.'

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Response: Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my saviour. (R.)

Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. (R.)

The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians 2:1-11

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:

His state was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the Gospel of Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go," but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir," but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?' 'The first' they said. Jesus said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.'

The Gospel of the Lord

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.
