A LONELY PLACE

Jesus was constantly surrounded by needy people. This weekend's Gospel is a good example. You will note that after preaching in the Synagogue where he also cured a sick person, he retired to Peter's house for refreshments. But, he didn't get much peace there either. Peter's mother-in-law was sick - he attended to her.

It was after sundown, when the Sabbath officially ended, the real trouble began. People crowded around the door, bringing with them all those who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another. He cured many of them. It must have been all hours by the time he got to bed.

Jesus 'made himself all things to all men'. How did he cope, this weekend's gospel tells us how. 'He rose early and went off to a lonely place to pray'. What did the lonely place do for him? It enabled him to get some much needed rest. It helped him to keep focused on his mission. But above all, it gave him time to pray. It was prayer that enabled him to maintain and foster the most important thing in his life - his relationship with his heavenly father. That relationship was the ground beneath his feet all life long, and the secret of his successful ministry. Jesus' entire ministry arose from his prayer, and was sustained by it.

We too need to withdraw from our activities from time to time in order to care for ourselves. How many of us manage to do this on a regular basis? Even though we may be convinced of its benefits, we don't find it an easy thing to do. Why is this?*

One reason:- we don't know how to cope with stillness! To withdraw means to stop our activity. But as soon as we stop our activity, we begin to feel empty - hence the compulsion to keep busy.

Another reason is: we are afraid of self-examination an activity few of us find easy - to reflect - is a kind of purification.

A Third reason: we can't cope with loneliness - what makes loneliness painful is not the absence of people - but the emptiness we feel. Therefore, we fill the void with endless distractions.

If we knew how to withdraw, we would benefit, and so too would our work. Our work would benefit because the quiet time would enable us to draw ourselves together, so that we are able to work from our purest and deepest springs. Action that is planted in the shallow soil of a life without prayer can be dangerous.

A quiet space is absolutely necessary in order to maintain our connection with God. Each day we should try, if only for a short while, to withdraw to a quiet place in order to seek the face of God. Just to sit in such a place is a good thing. In it we not only find God but something special to like about ourselves.*

There is a wonderful Hymn with words of invitation - Be still and know that I am God (3) I am the Lord that heal-eth thee. (3) In thee O Lord do I put my trust - Be still and know that I am God.

May you find peace in the presence of the Lord, in your sacred space

Dean Peter

PASSIONIST FAMILY GROUP was established in 1972 in Sydney. The aim of the Family Group Movement is to build Christian community through the development of extended families.

With loneliness and isolation so prevalent in our society, there is a genuine need for people to know and support each other. Family Groups create an extended family atmosphere within the community and are open to everyone. Our focus is on people caring for, loving and accepting each other.

"Love one another as I have loved you"

Our Aims:

- To get to know other members of the Parish
- To support each other sharing each others joys and sorrows and so building the Christian community as in the early Church
- To involve our children in our Christian sharing directly, if possible.

If not, then indirectly by our example Parishioners are invited to come and join our Parish Family Groups who meet socially e.g. pizza night, coffee after mass, BBQ, breakfast.
Enquiries: Veronica & Keith 0455121949.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: O Come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the book of Job 7:1-4,6-7

Job began to speak:

Is not man's life on earth nothing more than pressed service,
his time no better than hired drudgery?

Like the slave, sighing for the shade,
or the workman with no thought but his wages,
months of delusion I have assigned to me,
nothing for my own but nights of grief.

Lying in bed I wonder, 'When will it be day?'

Risen I think, 'How slowly evening comes!'

Restlessly I fret till twilight falls.

Swifter than a weaver's shuttle my days have passed,
and vanished, leaving no hope behind.

Remember that my life is but a breath,
and that my eyes will never again see joy.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted

Praise the Lord for he is good;
sing to our God for he is loving;
to him our praise is due. (R.)

The Lord builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles,
he heals the broken-hearted,
he binds up all their wounds.

He fixes the number of the stars;
he calls each one by its name. (R.)

Our Lord is great and almighty;
his wisdom can never be measured.

The Lord raises the lowly;
he humbles the wicked to the dust. (R.)

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 1 Cor 9:16 - 19, 22 - 23

I do not boast of preaching the gospel, since it is a duty which has been laid on me; I should be punished if I did not preach it! If I had chosen this work myself, I might have been paid for it, but as I have not, it is a responsibility which has been put into my hands. Do you know what my reward is? It is this: in my preaching, to be able to offer the Good News free, and not insist on the rights which the gospel gives me.

So though I am not a slave of any man I have made myself the slave of everyone so as to win as many as I could. For the weak I made myself weak. I made myself all things to all men in order to save some at any cost; and I still do this, for the sake of the gospel, to have a share in its blessings.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

He bore our sickness,
and endured our suffering.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue, Jesus went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew. Now Simon's mother-in-law had gone to bed with fever, and they told him about her straightaway. He went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to wait on them.

That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils. The whole town came crowding round the door, and he cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another; he also cast out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was.

In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there. Simon and his companions set out in search of him, and when they found him they said, 'Everybody is looking for you.' He answered, 'Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can preach there too, because that is why I came.' And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out devils.
