Shalom - The Gift of Peace

During the Last Supper Jesus said to the apostles, 'Peace I leave with you, my own peace I give to you. A peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. So, do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.' You will agree with me, these are indeed beautiful words.

I wonder if you remember The Hebrew word for peace is SHALOM used in many places throughout the bible. So rich in its content that the English word for 'peace' conveys only a fraction of what it means. In general it conveys a sense of universal completeness, a condition in which nothing is lacking. The state of perfect well-being which the word signifies belongs only to God. When one possesses peace, one is in perfect communion with God.

The false prophets prophesied peace when there was no peace. Jesus, on the other hand, is sometimes referred to as a 'disturber of the peace'. But the peace he disturbed was a false peace. An essential component of peace is righteousness. So, where there is no righteousness, there is no genuine peace. So, there is no peace for the wicked.

Peace is not just the absence of war or dissension, nor is it simple harmony. Peace is a state of inner calm, and designates right relations with God and with others. Peace in this complete sense, a peace which surpasses all human thought, cannot be created by human effort alone. It is a gift of God.

God desires the gift of those who serve him. God speaks of peace to his people. In biblical times SHALOM was an ordinary greeting. It was an expression of good wishes. Peace is one of the greatest gifts we can give to one another. But we cannot give it if we haven't got it. And we cannot give to one who doesn't want it or who is unable to receive it. We can create the conditions where peace is able to take root, but we cannot impose peace.

Jesus was able to offer peace to his apostles because he had it himself: 'My own peace I give to you.' Peace is communion with God. Since Jesus is in perfect communion with God, he can give us the gift of peace. What other peace can we give but our own? The Christian has a vocation to peace. But often alas! Instead of giving peace to others, we inflict on them our own unrest and unhappiness.

When Jesus appeared to the apostles after the resurrection he didn't scold them for failing him. Instead, he broke through the closed doors of their fears and doubts and spoke words they desperately needed to hear. He said 'Peace be with you.' By using these reassuring words he turned their despair to hope, and their sadness into joy.

As Jesus' disciples are we not fortunate to taste the peace of Jesus? A peace which surpasses all understanding, A peace the world cannot give, A peace no one can take away from us, A peace which can exist in the middle of our troubled worlds and in the midst of our unresolved problems. Peace is God's gift to us but it can also be our gift to one another.

*Remember this hymn? His Peace He Gives to us
'His peace he gives to us, His peace he leaves with us, not for us alone but that we might give it again to all men.'*

Peace and Love to all

Dean Peter

FIRST READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, 'Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved.' This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had had a long argument with these men it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the problem with the apostles and elders.

Then the apostles and elders decided to choose delegates to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; the whole church concurred with this. They chose Judas known as Barsabbas and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood, and gave them this letter to take with them:

'The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of pagan birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. We hear that some of our members have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds. They acted without any authority from us, and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with Barnabas and Paul, men we highly respect who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written in this letter. It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials: you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from fornication. Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.'

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

RESPONSE: O God, let all the nations praise you!

O God, be gracious and bless us
and let your face shed its light upon us.
So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help. (R.)

Let the nations be glad and exult
for you rule the world with justice.
With fairness you rule the peoples,
you guide the nations on earth. (R.)

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
May God still give us his blessing
till the ends of the earth revere him. (R.)

SECOND READING

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse 21:10-14, 22-23

In the spirit, the angel took me to the top of an enormous high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down from God out of heaven. It had all the radiant glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel of crystal-clear diamond. The walls of it were of a great height, and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

I saw that there was no temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple, and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 14:23-29

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away, and shall return. If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord, and I will ask the Father and he will send you another Paraclete, to abide with you forever, alleluia.
