Pentecost Sunday, Year C

THE MIRACLE OF CHANGE

We remember, before the coming of the Spirit, the Apostles were living in hiding in that upper room. A great task had been entrusted to them. They hesitated, through lack of will to begin it. But the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost changed their lives forever.

What did the Holy Spirit do to them? How did the miracle of change come about? We have to remember the Apostles were deeply wounded people. By grief, doubt, fear and failure and above all by their deep sense of inadequacy.

Jean Vanier (recently deceased) was a man who knew a great deal about what helps wounded people to change. He spent his whole life setting up little communities around the world for (mentally) handicapped people. He discovered that when the handicapped are locked away in institutions, terrible damage is done to their hearts and spirits. He said 'A wounded body will heal naturally, but not a wounded heart.' He discovered, a wounded heart will harden, just to survive, and then fill up with anger and bitterness.

But when the handicapped were taken out of institutions where they feel unwanted, and, put into communities where they are loved, Vanier witnessed, over and over again, the miracle of change.

This helps us understand what happened to the apostles, wounded we would understand in different ways to the handicapped, but nevertheless wounded. But, after the coming of the Spirit they were changed people. They left their hiding place, and set out with courage to preach the Gospel.

We understand their change was a gradual growth process within. Growth can be slow and painful. People change when they are given hope; when someone believes in them, and gives them a task to do. They change when they are loved, they come out of their shells, hidden energies are released within. The miracle of change is the only real miracle.

All of us have a capacity for goodness. We have hands that care, eyes that can see, ears that can hear, tongues that can speak, feet that can walk, and hearts that can love. But each of us have some handicaps, which keep us from realising our true and full selves. We need someone to awaken us to what is inside us. Someone who will bid us live, and help us grow.

For us followers of Jesus, that someone is the Holy Spirit. The power that changed the apostles is available to us too, the gentle power of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit awakens us to the mysterious power within us, bids us live, and helps us grow. The poet Pablo Neruda said: 'I want to do with you what spring does with the cherry trees.' That's what the Spirit does.

Let us pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit into our lives, into the Church and into our parish. We pray for all Christians that we be gathered into the unity of the Body of Christ. We pray for world leaders, that the Holy Spirit guide them in their work for justice and peace. We pray for all who mourn, that the Holy Spirit bring comfort and console them, we pray for all our brothers and sisters in our glorious parish of St Mary's Cathedral Sale that the Holy Spirit may teach us wisdom and simplicity of heart.

Dear Lord, send your Holy Spirit into our world, to gather people of every race, language and way of life into the peace and unity of your kingdom where you live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

Grace and Peace and the gifts of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Dean Peter

PARISH CALENDAR

Plenary Council Prayer

*Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.
O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.*

*Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.
Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.*

*Give us ears to listen humbly to each other
and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.
Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.*

*Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.*

*Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.*

SEQUENCE

Holy Spirit, Lord of light, From the clear celestial height Thy pure beaming radiance give.	If thou take thy grace away, Nothing pure in man will stay; All his good is turned to ill.
Come, thou Father of the poor, Come with treasures which endure; Come, thou light of all that live!	Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour thy dew; Wash the stains of guilt away:
Thou, of all consolers best, Thou, the soul's delightful guest, Dost refreshing peace bestow.	Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.
Thou in toil art comfort sweet; Pleasant coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe.	Thou, on us who evermore Thee confess and thee adore, With thy sevenfold gifts descend:
Light immortal, light divine, Visit thou these hearts of thine, And our inmost being fill:	Give us comfort when we die; Give us life with thee on high; Give us joys that never end.

PARISH PRAYER.

*God our loving Father, we give you thanks and praise
for our Cathedral Parish of Sale,
for your people and your Creation.
Nourish us by your daily Word and Eucharist.
Enrich us in our faith, hope and love.
Strengthen us with the spirit of your mercy and grace.
Make us grateful for your gifts as we journey
through our lives together.
May we be a welcoming and serving community,
always discerning and doing your will for one another.
We make this prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen.*

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia

FIRST READING:

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, my soul!

Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!

The earth is full of your riches. (R.)

You take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!

May the Lord rejoice in his works!

May my thoughts be pleasing to him.

I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

SECOND READING:

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit; fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy gospel according to John 14:15-16, 23-26

Jesus said to his disciples

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him.

Those who do not love me do not keep my words.

And my word is not my own;

it is the word of the one who sent me.

I have said these things to you

while still with you;

but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit,

whom the Father will send in my name,

will teach you everything

and remind you of all that I have said to you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.
