Child Protection Sunday

Matthew 18: 15-20

Throughout this past week (3-9 Sept), National Child Protection Week has invited all Australians to play their part to promote the safety and well-being of young people. This week, now its 27th year, supports and encourages the safety and well-being of Australian children and families. This year the National Association for Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect has focused on the theme 'Stronger Communities, Safer Children.' As the Association proposes, this theme emphasizes the importance and value of connected communities in keeping children and young people safe and well. Communities in which children are seen and heard, where participation is valued and where families can get the support they need are stronger communities which contribute to keeping children safe and well.

*The National Committee for Professional Standards, a committee of the Australian Catholic Bishops and Catholic Religious Australia, has subsequently put before us the theme, "See Me, Hear Me" for this Sunday when we commemorate the importance of the safety of children in our community of faith. With what commitment do we take notice of our children's safety? With what responsibility do we seek to ensure that our communities are places of safety for them?

Children are the delight both of our families and our communities. When we gaze upon a child we are caught intensely between an immediate experience of the present and heightened expectation of the future, between a "fulfilled moment and the beginning of a new day."

In every child, God waits for us to stir again within us the sense of new beginnings, of fresh possibilities, of awakening hopes. Every child is the sign of life's hope of ever new beginnings. They are the future in anticipation.

With a listening heart, our heart that sees and hears, we are called to enter into conversation which might become a means of conversion, a different way of acting. The Royal Commission, itself, in its own commitment to change society, has sought to do this by listening to the accounts of more than 1400 young Australians about their own experience of safety. It has been revealed that change for the greater protection of our most vulnerable will occur only as we respect them, ask what they are going through, watch what others are doing regarding them, listen to what they are trying to tell us, do what we are supposed to do for them, inform them about danger, and stand up and speak out for them. In doing so we maintain our most treasured within a strong experience of connection, within the nurturing bonds of community – the calibre of the truly Christian community about which the Gospel of Matthew proposes to us today.

(Part of the Sermon prepared for – Child Protection Sunday) 'Let the little children come unto me – the light of our lives' May our Parish be a safe community. Amen

Dean Peter

A BIG THANK YOU TO EVERYONE FOR THEIR HELP ON SEPTEMBER 2ND, 2017

We were overwhelmed by the ladies who made the most beautiful slices, cakes, biscuits etc and for the wonderful people who turned up to help on the day of the Ordination to Diaconate of Avinash and Hiep. Thank you also to the great men who turned up to help with setting up on Friday, Car Parking on the day and the general help you gave so willingly. Once again our Parishioners have shown their dedication to our Parish by their contributions in so many ways.

Thank you sometimes does not seem enough, but each individual who helped, made the day so much more enjoyable and proved again anything is possible when so many willing hands come forth.

Thank you all again and God bless your work for the Sale Parish.

Brenda Burditt on behalf of the Bereavement Group.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel 33:7-9

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows, 'Son of man, I have appointed you as sentry to the House of Israel. When you hear a word from my mouth, warn them in my name. If I say to a wicked man: Wicked wretch, you are to die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked man to renounce his ways, then he shall die for his sin, but I will hold you responsible for his death. If, however, you do warn a wicked man to renounce his ways and repent, and he does not repent, then he shall die for his sin, but you yourself will have saved your life.'

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

O that today you would listen to his voice!
Harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)

Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)

O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R.)

SECOND READING:

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 13:8-10

Avoid getting into debt, except the debt of mutual love. If you love your fellow men you have carried out your obligations. All the commandments: You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet, and so on, are summed up in this single command: You must love your neighbour as yourself. Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour; that is why it is the answer to every one of the commandments.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself;
and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If your brother does something wrong, go and have it out with him alone, between your two selves. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others with you: the evidence of two or three witnesses is required to sustain any charge. But if he refuses to listen to these, report it to the community; and if he refuses to listen to the community, treat him like a pagan or a tax collector.

'I tell you solemnly, whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.

'I tell you solemnly once again, if two of you on earth agree to ask anything at all, it will be granted to you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three meet in my name, I shall be there with them.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Like a deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God. The living God.
