WISDOM

Matthew 13: 44-52

Wisdom is a priceless thing and is something we all need.

Search

Since the beginning of time people have been looking for treasure, they search in the fields, in the hills, under the sea....if only they could find gold or diamonds or pearls they would be happy. In today's world, people the world over are still looking and searching. Except now, they look for it in the casino, playing the pokies, investing in the stock market and buying Lotto tickets.

In one way or another, all of us are treasure – hunters. All of us are looking for that something that will make us completely happy. Nothing wrong with this. Christ encourages us in our searching as the Gospel shows today. Christ loved searchers he understood their hunger and thirst. He was able to put them in the right direction.

Christ compared the Kingdom of God to a rare pearl or a priceless treasure. In other words, the Kingdom of God is worth everything we have. Those who find it are truly fortunate. The Kingdom of God is a very simple concept. It means to discover that one is a child of God, with a divine dignity and an eternal destiny. It means to know the meaning of life and how to live it.

Our chief task is not to be successful or even to be fulfilled. It is to live properly. No one can be happy who misses the main purpose of life the only question that really matters is how best to live in this world. Those who find the answer to this question have found the pearl.

A close relationship with God is a real treasure. It gives us a sense of who we are, and where we're going. Only God can give us what we are looking for. If we find God, we find all. To have faith is not to have all the answers. It doesn't mean all the work is done for us. Faith commits us to a life of discovery, searching and yearning.

It is not only in holy places such as churches, or only on religious occasions, that we find God and feel close to him. In Jesus' story, it was while the man was going about his daily work (of digging) that he found the treasure. The treasure we look for is hidden in the ground on which we stand.

Those who belong to the kingdom of God will taste real joy even here. But that joy is only a foretaste of what we will experience hereafter, when they will come into full possession of the Kingdom. May our search begin, may our search continue, may our search never end. If the spirit of God lives in you, sing to the Lord, praise him for his goodness!

Love and peace to all

Dean Peter

PARISH STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM 2017

WEEKEND 2 CELEBRATES FAITH WEEKEND SATURDAY 29TH & SUNDAY 30TH JULY 2017

PARISH STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM 2017
Our Stewardship Program continues this week as we focus on how Our Parish Community celebrates faith.

Frs Peter & Solomon will speak to us about the significance of how our parish comes together as a community to celebrate the Eucharist. To quote Pope Francis in the National Catholic Reporter: "Celebrating the Eucharist should make a difference in the way a parish community lives. At Mass, Christ gathers people around him to nourish us with his word and his life. This means that the mission and identity of the church begin and take form at Mass".

LETTER DELIVERY

Thank you to the people who picked up their letters last week and to the wonderful people who delivered such a large number. If you were away last weekend, please pick up yours today. If anyone can help by delivering a few more, it will be very much appreciated, as the remainder has to be posted on Monday.

PARISH INFORMATION MEETING

At all Masses this weekend RSVP cards will be distributed for parishioners to indicate their attendance at the key meeting of the Stewardship Program. Please show your support of our parish by making one hour available to come and participate at this special event. Full details are in the special attachment to this bulletin.

STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM PRAYER

Lord, we thank you for calling us to be your Church.

Through our Baptism we are called to service and to witness.

In the Eucharist we sustain and strengthen that call.

By serving others we follow your example and proclaim our beliefs.

By our Christian generosity we demonstrate our love and care.

Lord, help us always to worship you
as you deserve,

to grow in faith and service
and to give without counting the cost.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: God is in his holy place; God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the first book of the Kings 3:5. 7-12

The Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream and said, 'Ask what you would like me to give you.' Solomon replied, 'Lord, my God, you have made your servant king in succession to David my father. But I am a very young man, unskilled in leadership. Your servant finds himself in the midst of this people of yours that you have chosen, a people so many its numbers cannot be counted or reckoned. Give your servant a heart to understand how to discern between good and evil, for who could govern this people of yours that is so great?' It pleased the Lord that Solomon should have asked for this. 'Since you have asked for this' the Lord said 'and not asked for long life for yourself or riches or the lives of your enemies, but have asked for a discerning judgement for yourself, here and now I do what you ask. I give you a heart wise and shrewd as none before you has had and none will have after you.'

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lord, I love your commands.

My part, I have resolved, O Lord,
is to obey your word.
The law from your mouth means more to me than silver and gold. (R.)

Let your love be ready to console me
by your promise to your servant.
Let your love come to me and I shall live for your law is my delight. (R.)

That is why I love your commands more than finest gold.
That is why I rule my life by your precepts:
I hate false ways. (R.)

Your will is wonderful indeed;
therefore I obey it.
The unfolding of your word gives light and teaches the simple. (R.)

SECOND READING:

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:28-30

We know that by turning everything to their good God co-operates with all those who love him, with all those that he has called according to his purpose. They are the ones he chose specially long ago and intended to become true images of his Son, so that his Son might be the eldest of many brothers. He called those he intended for this; those he called he justified, and with those he justified he shared his glory.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said to the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off happy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls; when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea that brings in a haul of all kinds. When it is full, the fishermen haul it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in a basket and throw away those that are no use. This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the just to throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

'Have you understood all this?' They said, 'Yes.' And he said to them, 'Well, then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom things both new and old.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
