TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD (Matthew 17:1-9)

We commit ourselves in faith to a gift we're never quite ready for.

A young seminarian soon to be ordained a priest was serving in a parish as a deacon. After he preached and in the foyer talking with parishioners an elderly person stepped forward and in the midst of them all said " This man when preaching is preaching the word of God. Listen to him!" He went on to say to the young deacon, "You have a great gift. Don't you dare waste it!"

In a way something like this happens to Jesus in this weekend's Gospel. It happened to him once before you will remember, at his baptism. And, being truly human, he was probably never quite ready for what would entail. He must have been awed at times by the powerful effect of his healing and his preaching on the people he touched.

There is something awesome and a bit terrifying about knowing that we're called by God – and we are all called in some way, even if not in so many words. It may be a feeling we have about our purpose in life. It maybe someone challenging us to use our gifts. We know that each time we listen to the voice of God, we need to take the plunge, ready or not, into the depths of a Christian life.

When we discover how much we are loved by God, we find that we begin to reach out to people in new ways. We become more willing to risk others' disapproval in order to speak out for what we believe is right. Even if we begin with a clear vision of what God wants of us, we only arrive at a sense of what it really means as we struggle with living that call in our everyday lives. With Jesus we need to head down the mountain into Jerusalem.

Stay close to the Lord – Listen to Him and you will hear!

Every best wish Love and prayers

Dean Peter

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: In a resplendent cloud the Holy Spirit appeared. The Father's voice was heard: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the book of Daniel 7:9-10. 13-14

As I watched:

Thrones were set in place
and one of great age took his seat.
His robe was white as snow,
the hair of his head as pure as wool.
His throne was a blaze of flames,
its wheels were a burning fire.
A stream of fire poured out,
issuing from his presence.
A thousand thousand waited on him,
ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.
A court was held and the books were opened.
I gazed into the visions of the night.
And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven,
one like a son of man.
He came to the one of great age
and was led into his presence.
On him was conferred sovereignty,
glory and kingship,
and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants.
His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away,
nor will his empire ever be destroyed

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice,
let all the coastlands be glad.
Cloud and darkness are his raiment;
his throne, justice and right. (R.)

The mountains melt like wax before the Lord of all the earth.
The skies proclaim his justice;
all peoples see his glory. (R.)

For you indeed are the Lord
most high above all the earth exalted far above all spirits. (R.)

SECOND READING:

A reading from the second letter of St Peter 1:16-19

It was not any cleverly invented myths that we were repeating when we brought you the knowledge of the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; we had seen his majesty for ourselves. He was honoured and glorified by God the Father, when the Sublime Glory itself spoke to him and said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour.' We heard this ourselves, spoken from heaven, when we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have confirmation of what was said in prophecies; and you will be right to depend on prophecy and take it as a lamp for lighting a way through the dark until the dawn comes and the morning star rises in your minds.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

This is my Son, my beloved, in whom is all my delight:
listen to him.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 17:1-9

His face was shining like the sun.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him.' When they heard this, the disciples fell on their faces, overcome with fear. But Jesus came up and touched them. 'Stand up,' he said 'do not be afraid.' And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but only Jesus.

As they came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order, 'Tell no one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: When Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.
