Living with uncertainty

(Wisdom 18:6-9)., (Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19)., (Luke 12:32-48).

Many a time we find ourselves living with uncertainty. Some of those times will have been anxious times – involving an illness of a family member, or regarding our work we found the need to weigh up as to whether our job will be the same as it always had been. The anxious question will be - What of my future? Knowing it impacts on the family and their needs. Yes, throughout our lives we weigh up serious decisions needing to be made – very anxious times for many. Will our Australian competitors be successful in the Olympics? There are lots of uncertainty within our lives. This constantly stays in our thoughts – creating fear.

In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus gives us some instructions regarding the flight of life – a flight in which all of us is involved. We are to be prepared for the unexpected. Like faithful servants we are advised to keep ourselves in a state of readiness.

Only last week, I attended a dying person and said warmly, 'don't be afraid' and quickly she answered, 'I'm not afraid'. Her reply gave so much comfort to her family and friends assembled around her bedside – 'I'm not afraid'. She was ready!!

Through my many years in attending to my parishioners, I have witnessed often our human fragility. Life can be taken away from us in the twinkling of an eye. Jesus speaks his awareness of the uncertainty of life and through his parable stresses that death can come at any moment.

Uncertainty in life should not prevent us from enjoying life - all we need to know is we are to be faithful at all times to our responsibilities and commitments - then we can go forward into the unknown like Abraham did, trusting in God's gracious and loving care.

'Any time is a bad time for the unfaithful servant. Any time is a good time for the faithful servant. 'We are not called to be successful, only to be faithful' (Mother Teresa).

Walk life with care and lots of loving

With love and prayers to all

Dean Peter

AUGUST 14th, 9.30AM SUNDAY MASS

Monsignor John P Allman

I have invited Monsignor John to lead the 9.30am Mass on Sunday August 14th and, to mingle again with so many of you who hold him in the highest esteem. Monsignor served with distinction in the Parish of Sale for some 38 years of his priestly life – now well into retirement I thought it would be wonderful to have him among us to show him he is not forgotten and is always welcome here – since my return here many parishioners have shared fond memories and have appreciated all that Monsignor has done for the cathedral parish of Sale.

Following the 9.30am mass on August 14th there will be an opportunity to mingle with Monsignor over a cuppa – hopefully many of you will be able to gather in great numbers around Monsignor John.

Claim of Date

Parish Expo – Parish Forum

I am asking for all Parishioners to claim the date of October 16th for our Parish Expo and Parish Forum.

Over the next few weeks through the Parish Pastoral Council all our parish groups will be invited to have on display their story, pictorial or otherwise – just think on it. There are some 30 or more groups actively doing wonderful things within our Parish. Each group you will appreciate has their remarkable story and more importantly are inspirational in their commitment to a great cause.

Their displays will be placed in the Cathedral gathering area with a representative attending their groups presentation, ready to answer any questions raised.

Organisation for the expo-forum will go something like this: Following the 9.30am Mass – there will be a cuppa – then a move around the room from 11.00am to 11.15am for all present to view each display. At the end of this time all will be invited to stay to take part in discussions in a parish forum, hopefully our time together will conclude at 12.00midday.

Looking forward to this special time with you.

Kind wishes, Dean Peter

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Wisdom 18:6-9

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in, they would joyfully take courage. This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you. The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord: that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike; and forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;
for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.
They are happy, whose God is the Lord,
the people he has chosen as his own. (R.)

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. (R.)

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was for faith that our ancestors were commended.

It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

All these died in faith, before receiving any of the things that had been promised, but they saw them in the far distance and welcomed them, recognising that they were only strangers and nomads on earth. People who use such terms about themselves make it quite plain that they are in search of their real homeland. They can hardly have meant the country they came from, since they had the opportunity to go back to it; but in fact they were longing for a better homeland, their heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, since he has founded the city for them.

It was by faith that Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He offered to sacrifice his only son even though the promises had been made to him and he had been told: It is through Isaac that your name will be carried on. He was confident that God had the power even to raise the dead, and so, figuratively speaking, he was given back Isaac from the dead.

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready:

You know not when the Son of Man is coming.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the Gospel of Luke 12:32-48

Jesus said to his disciples: 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.

'Sell your possessions and give alms. Get yourselves purses that do not wear out, treasure that will not fail you, in heaven where no thief can reach it and no moth destroy it. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

'See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Peter said, 'Lord, do you mean this parable for us, or for everyone?' The Lord replied, 'What sort of steward, then, is faithful and wise enough for the master to place him over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time? Happy that servant if his master's arrival finds him at this employment. I tell you truly, he will place him over everything he owns. But as for the servant who says to himself, "My master is taking his time coming", and sets about beating the menservants and the maids, and eating and drinking and getting drunk, his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the unfaithful.

'The servant who knows what his master wants, but has not even started to carry out those wishes, will receive very many strokes of the lash. The one who did not know, but deserves to be beaten for what he has done, will receive fewer strokes. When a man has had a great deal given him, a great deal will be demanded of him; when a man has had a great deal given him on trust, even more will be expected of him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.
