STAYING AWAKE – KEEPING WATCH

First Sunday of Advent

Three times in this weekend's Gospel ( Mk 13:33-37) Jesus encourages his followers to 'stay awake'. We know the call to 'stay awake' is meant for us too. It is a very appropriate call for the beginning of the liturgical year.

Habit plays a big part in our lives. All of us, except the very young, are to a great degree creatures of habit. Dostoevsky said that we live the second half of our lives according to the habits acquired during the first half. That is comforting for those who have formed good habits, but disturbing for those who have formed bad habits.

There is a positive side to habit. Repetition is necessary. It is a hard grind and a tough discipline, but it can bear fruit. Habits can be life giving and sustaining. Daily habits and routines can keep people going and help them get through their bad times, when even the smallest of our daily habits become meaningful.

Nelson Mandela gives us an example of this. Writing about his time in prison, he said, ' To survive in prison, one must develop ways to take satisfaction in one's daily life. One can feel fulfilled by washing one's clothes by sweeping a corridor....'

But there is a negative side to habit. Doing the same things day in and day out can be soul-destroying. We can get into a rut, and end up doing things merely out of habit. This results in things being done absent-mindedly and in a casual, unthinking manner. There is no real heart or feeling in them.

Habit can be a great deadener. It dulls our senses, especially our seeing and hearing-further, habits are nearly always selfish, very hard to break, especially bad habits. An actress once said: 'I like to keep the script fresh, bright, alive. If you are too familiar with the material you tend to give a rote performance. You need to get out of your comfort zone.'

We need to combat that stale and weary sense of the familiar. Maybe that is the purpose of Advent. It issues us with a wake-up call. It provides us with a chance to start again.

We can easily become Christians by habit only. We are just going through the motions. The result is a rote and often empty recitation of our prayers and dare I say it, worse still, we don't hear the Gospel any more.

Advent calls us to wake up. To shake off the fetters of habit and routine and to let Christ come alive in our lives once more.

Let us enter into this exciting Advent with a desire to break the shackles and to hear the Lord's word anew.

Kindest wishes to all      Dean Peter

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ, today we begin the season of Advent. It is a time of watching and waiting for the coming of the Lord. As we celebrate the season of Advent, we think again of the love of God for us, endless and ever new, symbolised in this circle of greenery. The candles of the wreath signify how this eternal and all-embracing love has been manifested in time, and will be manifest forever when the Lord appears in glory. Today we light the first of the candles, looking forward to the day of the Lord.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: To you, I lift my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 63:16-17; 64:1.3-8

You, Lord, yourself are our Father,
Our Redeemer is your ancient name.
Why, Lord, leave us to stray from your ways
and harden our hearts against fearing you?
Return, for the sake of your servants,
the tribes of your inheritance.
Oh, that you would tear the heavens open and come down
– at your Presence the mountains would melt.
No ear has heard,
no eye has seen
any god but you act like this
for those who trust him.
You guide those who act with integrity
and keep your ways in mind.
You were angry when we were sinners;
we had long been rebels against you.
We were all like men unclean,
all that integrity of ours like filthy clothing.
We have all withered like leaves
and our sins blew us away like the wind.
No one invoked your name
or roused himself to catch hold of you.
For you hid your face from us
and gave us up to the power of our sins.
And yet, Lord, you are our Father;
we the clay, you the potter,
we are all the work of your hand.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Lord, make us turn to you, let us see your face and we shall be saved.

O shepherd of Israel, hear us,
shine forth from your cherubim throne.
O Lord, rouse up your might,
O Lord, come to our help. (R.)

God of hosts, turn again, we implore,
look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. (R.)

May your hand be on the man you have chosen,
the man you have given your strength.
And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name. (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 1:3-9

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.
I never stop thanking God for all the graces you have received through Jesus Christ. I thank him that you have been enriched in so many ways, especially in your teachers and preachers; the witness to Christ has indeed been strong among you so that you will not be without any of the gifts of the Spirit while you are waiting for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed; and he will keep you steady and without blame until the last day, the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, because God by calling you has joined you to his Son, Jesus Christ; and God is faithful.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love,
and grant us your salvation.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the Gospel of Mark 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be on your guard, stay awake, because you never know when the time will come. It is like a man travelling abroad: he has gone from home, and left his servants in charge, each with his own task; and he has told the doorkeeper to stay awake. So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake!'

The Gospel of the Lord
