PALM SUNDAY of the PASSION of the LORD 24 - 25 March 2018

Attitude to Suffering

There is little point in being sentimental about suffering. Suffering could destroy us. W.B. Yeats says, 'Too long a sacrifice can make a stone of the heart.' Suffering could take control of our lives with the result that we become perpetual victims.

But suffering can benefit us. Suffering can purify our souls and strengthen our character. It can enable us to tap rich sources of strength within ourselves. It can also soften our hearts and enable us to empathise with other sufferers. The value of suffering does not lie in the pain of it, but in what the sufferer makes of it. We don't have control over what happens to us, but we do have control over how we react to what happens to us.

For example, two people are seriously injured in a car accident. One chose to live the experience in bitterness. Everybody pitied him.

The other, chose to live the experience in gratitude – gratitude for having survived. The experience taught him a great lesson, namely that life is a precious gift and that no matter what circumstance, we should try to live it fully and joyfully. He became a source of inspiration to everyone.

We should not regard suffering as a punishment from God. God punishes no one. God allows us to suffer. And with God's help, we can derive good from suffering. Our pain can bring us closer to God. In coping with it we can experience his power, his love.

We are entering Holy Week, through this week we look especially for the example of Jesus. It is a great comfort to know that Jesus, innocent and blameless, has gone down the road of suffering before us and gone down it to the end. Jesus didn't love suffering, nor did he find it easy. Nor did God demand it from him. It was just that he had to go this way in order to be faithful to the mission God the Father had given him on our behalf. We recall the words of Isaiah 'Ours were the suffering he bore, ours the sorrows he carried' (Is 53:4).

Jesus didn't die to save us from suffering but rather, he died to teach us how to suffer. The road of suffering is narrow and difficult, but not the same since he travelled it. A bright light illuminates it. And even though it leads to Calvary, it doesn't end there. It ends at Easter. Those who link their sufferings with those of Christ become the source of blessings for others, and will share Christ's Easter glory.

We look to Holy week with a sense of wonder and awe at the Love Jesus has for us. May we be sensitive to the sufferings of those around us, and ensure they do not have to carry their cross alone.

Love and Peace
Dean Peter

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION: The annual collection for the support of the Church in the Holy Land takes place on Good Friday. This collection promotes the missionary work for the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. Parishes, schools, orphanages and medical centres throughout the Holy Land also rely on assistance from the Good Friday collection. The collection is also used to maintain 74 Churches and Shrines associated with the life of Jesus. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Please remember the Christians of the Holy Land again on this Good Friday. The Good Friday collection offers all Catholics an opportunity to express their solidarity with Christians in the Holy Land. A donation to the Holy Father's annual appeal is a direct way to make a difference in the lives of those caught up in war, violence and instability. Last year's collection supported 29 parishes, 4 homes for orphans, three academic institutions, schools, supported 120 seminarians, rehabilitate 80 Christian homes, senior care facilities and preserved 54 shrines. Please pray that peace and harmony will become a reality in the birthplace of Jesus, the 'Prince of Peace'. Envelopes are available in the Cathedral.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults.

So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me deride me.

They curl their lips, they toss their heads.

'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;

let him release him if this is his friend.' (R.)

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me.

They tear holes in my hands and my feet.

I can count every one of my bones. (R.)

They divide my clothing among them.

They cast lots for my robe.

O Lord, do not leave me alone,

my strength, make haste to help me! (R.)

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.

'You who fear the Lord give him praise;

all sons of Jacob, give him glory.

Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from St Paul's letter to the Philippians 2:6-11

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross.

Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL:

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 14:1-15:47

N It was two days before the Passover and the feast of Unleavened Bread, and the chief priests and scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by some trick and have him put to death. For they said,

C It must not be during the festivities, or there will be a disturbance among the people.

N Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper; he was at dinner when a woman came in with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment, pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the ointment on his head.

Some who were there said to one another indignantly,

C Why this waste of ointment? Ointment like this could have been sold for over three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor;

.....On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to him,

C Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?

.....The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus on which they might pass the death sentence. But they could not find any. Several, indeed, brought false evidence against him, but their evidence was conflicting. Some stood up and submitted this false evidence against him,

C We heard him say, 'I am going to destroy this Temple made by human hands, and in three days build another, not made by human hands.'

.....And they all gave their verdict: he deserved to die. Some of them started spitting at him and, blindfolding him, began hitting him with their fists and shouting,

C Play the prophet!

.....But he again denied it. A little later the bystanders themselves said to Peter,

C You are one of them for sure! Why, you are a Galilean.

.....But in that case, what am I to do with the man you call king of the Jews?

N They shouted back.

C Crucify him!

N Pilate asked them,

O Why? What harm has he done?

N But they shouted all the louder,

C Crucify him!

.....The soldiers led him away to the inner part of the palace, that is, the Praetorium, and called the whole cohort together. They dressed him up in purple, twisted some thorns into a crown and put it on him. And they began saluting him,

C Hail, king of the Jews!

.....The passers-by jeered at him; they shook their heads and said,

C Aha! So you would destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days! Then save yourself: come down from the cross!

.....The chief priests and the scribes mocked him among themselves in the same way. They said,

C He saved others, he cannot save himself. Let the Christ, the king of Israel, come down from the cross now, for us to see it and believe.

This means, 'My God, my God, why have you deserted me?' When some of those who stood by heard this, they said,

C Listen he is calling on Elijah.

..... Mary of Magdala and Mary the mother of Joset were watching and took note of where he was laid.

The Gospel of the Lord.
