Plenary Council - 2020

Report on the parish gathering with Bishop Pat - Weds June 20, 2018

On a very cold winters night some 45 plus parishioners gathered to hear Bishop Pat's presentation as he planted the seed for all to look positively towards Plenary Council 2020.

Bishop Pat gave us four challenges 1) Pray 2) Invigorate your Pastoral Council, 3) Seek ways of consultation locally 4) Pray with those challenges also a few telling thoughts to bring to our prayer

1) Discernment is messy and unsettling, we need a calm serenity in all the mess.

2) We need to contemplate the voice of Christ

3) It is Abrahamic, "Go to the land that I will show you", let go and have the imagination of seeing things differently, Abraham leaves what he knows, not everything.

4) God never leaves us where we are.

5) This is an invitation to make an act of faith that is under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

6) The aim of the Plenary Council is to give the Church a sense of hope, while seeing the complex reality of life.

7) Missionary discipleship, not missionary professionals.

8) We want to retain what is good; some are hankering for something that is not there any more.

9) How do we name the identity of the Church in Australia in 2018 and beyond?

As we put central committees into place I invite all parishioners to begin this mission for the parish with these thoughts in your prayers

Let us look positively to the future as we call on your generosity for your involvement, every voice will be heard, every comment will be respected for in charity and with prayer we build the church of God.

I am grateful for the 45 who were able to come, we need more to become interested and involved in the process as it opens out to us. Remember Positive people do positive things and when we look at the stories of the saints who did wonderful things for God, we remain in awe of their Faith Courage and Generosity.

Let us likewise step out in faith, courage and generosity in our turn.

Kindest wishes

Dean Peter

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

FIRST READING:

A reading from the book of Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R.)

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R.)

The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from the 2nd letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 8:7. 9. 13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I will be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?" But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord.
