32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B 10 - 11 November 2018

PLENARY COUNCIL LISTENING AND DIALOGUE SESSIONS

Our Plenary Council Listening and Dialogue Session with Bishop Patrick O'Regan will be held from 7.00pm this Tuesday 13 November in the assembly area of the Cathedral.

The Church in Australia is now in the Listening and Dialogue phase of the preparation for the Plenary Council, where, as communities of faith we respond to the question:

“What is God asking of us in Australia at this time?”

We began our Plenary 2020 journey with the round of open parish information meetings presented by Bishop Pat, held between February and June, and last month, we completed the training for Plenary Animators and Teams in 5 Regional Training and Formation sessions around the Diocese.

Now, parishes and schools are gearing up to organise Listening and Dialogue Encounters within their communities and small groups. The discussion and questions arising from these gatherings will form the basis of local submissions to the Plenary Council by parishes, schools, small groups and individuals. This stage of the process will conclude on Ash Wednesday 2019. It will also assist the Diocese in the planning for a Diocesan Assembly to be held on 13th- 14th September 2019. As part of this Listening and Dialogue phase, Bishop Pat is inviting everyone to participate in one of the 5 Listening and Dialogue Sessions with the Bishop to be held around the Diocese in October and November. Flyers have been sent out around the Diocese last week. (See further details below.) The meeting outline is provided below. It is important that we use the plenary process for beginning the conversation, so that the discussion and questions that follow may be shaped by fruitful reflection, listening and sharing.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the 1st Book of Kings 17:10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives', she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent,
jug of oil shall not be emptied,
before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith forever who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord who sets prisoners free. (R.)

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down.

It is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord who protects the stranger. (R.)

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan
but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from St Paul's letter to the Hebrews 9:24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs. Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 12:38-44

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: The Lord is my Shepherd there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and Green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
