The feast of the Epiphany

We are called to open our treasures

One of Aesop's fables goes like this. A child was sitting by a wall when suddenly a toad emerged from a hole. The child quickly spread out her silk scarf in front of the toad, the kind that toads love to walk on. As soon as the toad saw the scarf, it went back into the hole and soon returned carrying a little gold crown which it had laid on the scarf, and went back into the hole again.

The girl immediately picked up the crown and put it into her pocket. Before long the toad returned, but when it did not see the crown on the scarf, it crept to the wall and from sorrow beat its little head against the wall and sadly died. Had the girl left the crown lie where it was, the toad surely would have brought out more of its treasures from the cave.

The purpose of this special story is to show that everybody has a treasure to share. The question is: how do we get them to share that treasure. Getting them to share their gifts voluntarily is the task at hand. There is no point in forcing people to make sacrifices. If you take from people, they are impoverished, but if you get them to give them up, they are enriched. People are essentially good, but this goodness has to be called forth, if they are to enter the kingdom of love.

Christmas comes to our aid. If God's son had come in wealth, he would have made us aware of our own poverty. He came in weakness, thereby making us aware of our own riches. His poverty called forth in us our feeling of compassion, bringing our hearts to life. To look at the poverty of the infant king of the Universe causes us to open our hearts.

It was the poverty of Jesus that caused the Magi to open their treasures of gold, frankincense, and myrrh, and lay them before him. And, instead of being impoverished, the Magi were enriched. It is through giving that we are enriched, because through giving we discover our own riches.

This lovely feast of the Epiphany calls for us to open our hearts. To open one's heart is to begin to live. Jesus no longer needs our gifts. But other people may. He wants us to share ourselves with one another. And we too will find ourselves enriched, if as a result of knowing Jesus, we are able to open the treasures of our hearts and share them with others.

Happy New Year to all

Dean Peter, Fr Solomon, Your Parish Council with John Clancy as Chair, Jennifer Fitzgerald, Veronica Barnes, Myriam Elgueta, Mark Durrant and Clare O'Brien wish to assure you of our intention to continually give of ourselves for the life of our beautiful Cathedral Parish.

In the words of St Francis we invite you to pray

Lord make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred/let me sow your love where there is injury/pardon, where there is doubt/faith, where there is despair/hope, where there is darkness/light, and where there is sadness/joy.

O Divine Master / grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Stay safe on our roads, enjoy your well earned rest and the many families coming together because Christ is born.

Love and prayers

Dean Peter

SOME THOUGHTS TO HELP our New Year - 2019 - Let us resolve to be more like Mary the Mother of God

- let us be prepared to expect the unexpected - to welcome what God brings us as a gift of grace

- let us resolve to live with that grace - as God's servant, as his handmaid, as his instrument

- Let us resolve to serve and to do it for others with haste as Mary served her cousin Elizabeth.

- Let us resolve to live our lives in a way that honours and celebrates his work in the world

- Let us be a people of prayer and remembrance, let us resolve to observe sacred spaces and sacred silence. May we trust enough to "hold all these things in our hearts," and surrender any uncertainty or doubt or anxiety to God.

May 2019 be full of grace, happiness and peace in the lord for all.

Dean Peter

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Behold, the Lord, the Mighty One, has come; and kingship is in his grasp, and power and dominion.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 60:1-6

Arise, shine out, Jerusalem, for your light has come, the glory of the Lord is rising on you, though night still covers the earth and darkness the peoples. Above you the Lord now rises and above you his glory appears. The nations come to your light and kings to your dawning brightness. Lift up your eyes and look round: all are assembling and coming towards you, your sons from far away and your daughters being tenderly carried. At this sight you will grow radiant, your heart throbbing and full; since the riches of the sea will flow to you; the wealth of the nations come to you; camels in throngs will cover you, and dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; everyone in Sheba will come, bringing gold and incense and singing the praise of the Lord. The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

O God, give your judgement to the king, to a king's son your justice, that he may judge your people in justice and your poor in right judgement. (R.)

In his days justice shall flourish and peace till the moon fails. He shall rule from sea to sea, from the Great River to earth's bounds. (R.)

The kings of Tarshish and the sea coasts shall pay him tribute.

The kings of Sheba and Seba shall bring him gifts.

Before him all kings shall fall prostrate, all nations shall serve him. (R.)

For he shall save the poor when they cry and the needy who are helpless.

He will have pity on the weak and save the lives of the poor. (R.)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians 3:2-3. 5-6

You have probably heard how I have been entrusted by God with the grace he meant for you, and that it was by a revelation that I was given the knowledge of the mystery. This mystery that has now been revealed through the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets was unknown to any men in past generations; it means that pagans now share the same inheritance, that they are parts of the same body, and that the same promise has been made to them, in Christ Jesus, through the gospel.

We know that he lives in us by the Spirit that he has given us.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

We have seen his star in the East; and have come to adore the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 2:1-12

After Jesus had been born at Bethlehem in Judaea during the reign of King Herod, some wise men came to Jerusalem from the east. 'Where is the infant king of the Jews?' they asked. 'We saw his star as it rose and have come to do him homage.' When King Herod heard this he was perturbed, and so was the whole of Jerusalem. He called together all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, and enquired of them where the Christ was to be born. 'At Bethlehem in Judaea,' they told him, 'for this is what the prophet wrote:

And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, you are by no means least among the leaders of Judah, for out of you will come a leader who will shepherd my people Israel.'

Then Herod summoned the wise men to see him privately. He asked them the exact date on which the star had appeared, and sent them on to Bethlehem. 'Go and find out all about the child,' he said 'and when you have found him, let me know, so that I too may go and do him homage.' Having listened to what the king had to say, they set out. And there in front of them was the star they had seen rising; it went forward and halted over the place where the child was. The sight of the star filled them with delight, and going into the house they saw the child with his mother Mary, and falling to their knees they did him homage. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh. But they were warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, and returned to their own country by a different way.

The Gospel of the Lord.
