VALE SR LAURINE BRICE nds

The Cathedral Parish remembers and thanks Sister for her dedication to education as principal to St Patrick's Primary School for near to 24 years. And in retirement whilst living in Sale, as spiritual director to St Vincent de Paul's, Catholic Women's League, a keen supporter of Serra International and for her pastoral presence to many families throughout the parish.

Wednesday last, May 2, 11.30am Bishop Patrick O'Regan, presided over a Funeral mass for the Repose of her Soul. Dean Peter, Fr John Davine, Fr Brendan Hogan and Fr Edwin Ogbuka, con-celebrated. Apologies were sent by Fr Bernard Buckley, Fr Jeff Klenjens, Fr Peter Slater VG., Fr Peter Kooloos, Fr Denis O'Bryan, Monsignor John P Allman, Fr Manny Lomagno, Fr Herman Hengel and Fr John Readman.

Sister, taking in many tasks, loved it best when preparing young minds and hearts for the Sacraments of Reconciliation, Eucharist and Confirmation. She wanted all to come to know and love Jesus as she had come to know and love Jesus.

Sr Lauraine belonged to so many families students and Teachers. Stories of her kindness, wise direction, generous attention, service and outreach were so freely shared and are now her legacy. Sister's wish to be buried with her Sisters of Our Lady of Sion in the Sale Cemetery was granted – she rests with her community of devout Sisters of Sion where her heart always was. It comforts us, to know she rests in our midst.

We, the Cathedral Parish of Sale, agree Sister Lauraine Brice nds was one remarkable disciple for Christ. In meeting with many of her students now Parents and Grand-parents who travelled long distances to join in the funeral Mass for the Repose of her Soul was a emotional moment for me (Melbourne, Brisbane Gold Coast, Adelaide, Geelong)

Adding a warm touch at the Rosary in Sion Campus Chapel Catholic College, deputy Principal Peter Centra, speaking for College Principal Mr Chris Randell, words of welcome and appreciation of how Sister had impacted pastorally, prayerfully and lovingly in the lives of many students. With the college choir leading the singing all present prayed the Rosary.

At the Funeral Mass, students from St Patrick's Primary School with Principal Nick Hall, Vice Principal Rose Lee (a past pupil) teachers and families and many parishioners filled the Cathedral. The Sisters of Sion so comforted – all praying together. Sr Mary Barbuto led with words of welcome – Sr Joan Mack delivered the Eulogy. Dean Peter the Homily. Now is Sr Lauraine's time to die, it is her time to enter into her eternal reward, we are grateful for all we have shared and say from the heart 'Well done good and faithful servant' when ever we think of her we pray with joy.

Eternal Rest grant unto her O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon her, may she rest in peace. May the Soul of Sister Lauraine Brice nds, and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, Rest In Peace. Amen.

Care and Love to all Dean Peter

2019 CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP SERIES

FORMING MISSIONARY DISCIPLES: A SCRIPTURAL LENS

Wednesdays 8, 15, 22, 29 May

6.30 - 8.30pm at Mercy Lecture Theatre, Australian Catholic University
115 Victoria Parade, Fitzroy

This four-week series offers parish leaders and all those interested in exploring the scriptures a survey of key books, themes and figures from our rich biblical tradition.

Guided by some of Australia's leading biblical scholars, participants will explore a range of topics from creation to the prophetic movement; the Lukan narrative and key figures in the formation of the early church—all of which offer much wisdom and insight for the formation of modern Christian disciples and communities.

Guest speakers include Dr Mary Coloe PBVM, Rev. Dr Chris Monaghan CP and Dr Rosemary Canavan

CHILD SAFE STANDARDS Thank you to all Parishioners who have updated or obtained their Working with Children check and to those who have returned their signed Code of Conduct sheets. To be able to volunteer in the Parish you need to have both. Please return your signed copies of the Code of Conduct to the Parish Office if you have not already done so. Thank you John Clancy and Lorel Donnelly, St Mary's Cathedral Parish Child Safety Officers.

Plenary Council Prayer

*Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.
O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way
of the Plenary Council.*

*Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.
Give us the courage to tell our stories
and to speak boldly of your truth.*

*Give us ears to listen humbly to each other
and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.
Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.*

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

*Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.*

TRINITY FAMILIES COLLECTION

Trinity Families is the Sale Diocese's charitable fund which does magnificent work providing support for programs which aid families in need of welfare services. Over the past 15 years it has provided a staggering $1.5 million to assist other charities to run programs for families in need in our region. Programs funded include family counselling services, parenting programs, suicide prevention, respite care, drug and alcohol programs and emergency accommodation. Trinity Families could do much more if it had more financial resources and that is why we need you to respond positively to the annual appeal in our parishes. The theme this year is "Be the reason someone smiles today." Your generosity in supporting this annual appeal will be greatly appreciated. On the pews are envelopes which can be used for donations. Cheque and credit card donations can be posted back to the diocese, but we ask that cash donations are placed in the envelope and returned on the 25 or 26 May collections. Tax deductible receipts will be provided if you give your email or postal address. The Trinity Families website www.trinityfamilies.org.au has details if you wish to donate by direct debit. Again, please give generously to this once a year appeal and hopefully we see smiles on the faces of many more struggling families within our diocese.

PARISH PRAYER.

*God our loving Father, we give you thanks and praise for our Cathedral Parish of Sale,
for your people and your Creation.
Nourish us by your daily Word and Eucharist.
Enrich us in our faith, hope and love.
Strengthen us with the spirit of your mercy and grace
Make us grateful for your gifts
as we journey through our lives together.
May we be a welcoming and serving community,
always discerning and doing your will
for one another.
We make this prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen*

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40-41

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning,' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead,
restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R.)

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R.)

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing;
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse 5:11-14

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation – everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation;
he has shown pity on all people.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 21:1-19

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'

'I tell you most solemnly, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.' In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow me.'
