Fourth Sunday of Easter, Year C 11 – 12 May 2019

*Our Dear Mother Mary, given to us at the Foot of the Cross
Model and Mentor to all mothers*

Happily, today, we honour all mothers – biological mothers, adoptive mothers, foster mothers, step-mothers and single mothers. All have a special place in our prayers and our hearts this Mother's Day. We keep in our prayers, women who wish to share in the vocation of motherhood but for whatever reason cannot do so.

With a loving heart, we pray for our deceased mothers.

Let us always be grateful and it's lovely that on this one day of the year we pray and say thank you to our mothers for all they have done for us. Naturally our gratitude is all year round, not just today as we manifest our love with gifts of flowers, cards and our presence, expressing our love and appreciation.

We ask the Blessed Virgin Mary – our Mother – to be the model for all mothers. Remember Mary's motherhood came at a great cost. She gave birth in a simple barn. She heard of Herod's determination to slay every first born child. She walked with her son to Calvary and stood with him at the foot of the cross.

Mary is a compassionate and understanding model for all mothers in their joys, challenges and sorrows. Mary gives us an example of what it means to be a person of faith. Speaking as she spoke to the servants at the wedding feast of Cana – 'do whatever he tells you' (Jn 2: 5)

Our lovely Christian tradition has always recognised that motherhood is a vocation, a call from God, to nurture, form and love our children. Many mothers have to work outside the home in order to provide for their child. We admire those who do and thank them for living out their vocational call of motherhood in a very busy life.

Today too, we remember those mothers who have had to bury their children, with immense and permanent hurt in their hearts.

We in the Cathedral Parish of Sale, thank God for all mothers who live the vocation of motherhood so generously. We invite you to look upon Mary our Mother as mentor and guide.

May the Lord bless you with hearts full of joy and peace. May your day affirm your efforts, sacrifices, and generous love.

God bless and protect all – In the Name of the father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Peace and Love to all, Dean Peter

TRINITY FAMILIES COLLECTION

Trinity Families is the Sale Diocese's charitable fund which does magnificent work providing support for programs which aid families in need of welfare services. Over the past 15 years it has provided a staggering $1.5 million to assist other charities to run programs for families in need in our region. Programs funded include family counselling services, parenting programs, suicide prevention, respite care, drug and alcohol programs and emergency accommodation. Trinity Families could do much more if it had more financial resources and that is why we need you to respond positively to the annual appeal in our parishes. The theme this year is "Be the reason someone smiles today." Your generosity in supporting this annual appeal will be greatly appreciated. On the pews are envelopes which can be used for donations. Cheque and credit card donations can be posted back to the diocese, but we ask that cash donations are placed in the envelope and returned in one of the Sunday collections. Tax deductible receipts will be provided if you give your email or postal address. The Trinity Families website www.trinityfamilies.org.au has details if you wish to donate by direct debit. Again, please give generously to this once a year appeal and hopefully we see smiles on the faces of many more struggling families within our diocese.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats. When the meeting broke up, many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them. The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said: I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.' It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside. But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Serve the Lord with gladness.

Come before him, singing for joy. (R.)

Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him,

we are his people, the sheep of his flock. (R.)

Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age. (R.)

SECOND READING:

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse 7:9, 14-17

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;

I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 10:27-30

Jesus said:

'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice;

I know them and they follow me.

I give them eternal life they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me.

The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone,

and no one can steal from the Father.

The Father and I are one.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock.
Alleluia
