26 - 27 June 2021*

Pastoral Ministry Parish Life and Pastoral Councils

Dear Fellow Parishioners, we are at a time when Parish numbers have fallen, and much is asked of the few. Parishes are at all times looking for new ways to continue sending the message that "all belong" that God loves all and our pastoral and caring heart is available to all. Pope Francis in Evangelii Gaudium n28 said, and I quote "The parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possess great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community."

Let me suggest: we need to review and renew under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Strong and vibrant parishes are places of welcome where people come to Worship and praise God: Experience a sense of belonging as the Body of Christ: Formed into the faith: Enable the missionary disciples to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ: Go out to serve others in their community and the world.

As we know Parishes serve in many ways through various groups and agencies:

PLEASE CONSIDER COMING ONTO THE PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

"Parish Councils are one of the structures which were strongly recommended by the Bishops of the Second Vatican Council. The purpose of the councils was seen as furthering the work of the Church by fostering the spiritual growth of parishioners and leading them to respond actively to their universal call to mission."

A Parish Pastoral Council is an important consultative planning body in the life and work of the parish. Its members are called from the parish community, to serve and to enable that community to carry forward the mission of Jesus Christ. The Parish Pastoral Council works co-responsibly with the pastoral leadership exercised by the Parish Priest.

"The programme of the Gospel must continue to take root, as it has always done, in the life of the Church everywhere. It is in the local churches that the specific features of a detailed pastoral plan can be identified – goals and methods, formation and enrichment of the people involved, the search for the necessary resources – which will enable the proclamation of Christ to reach people, mould communities, and have a deep and incisive influence in bringing Gospel values to bear in society and culture." John Paul II. Novo Millennio Inuente, no.29.

Fellow parishioners, we are asking for new members for our Parish Council, I implore you pray the above sentences that offer our growth in doing something beautiful for God. We are hopeful we will have new members from each of the regions of the Parish - Sale, Stratford/Briagolong, Rosedale, Loch Sport/Seaspray. We are companions on the Journey, seeking to outreach with caring hearts to one and all.

*With every best wish to one and all,
Dean Peter, Fr Jithin, Parish Council*

THE BEREAVEMENT GROUP NEED HELP!

The group has recently catered for funerals for two of our most valued and loved parishioners. As we have been in enforced covid shut down but we now are able to help again with catering. We are asking for extra help with cooking and help on the day of the funeral. We need people who are able to cook a slice and/or cake for us. If we get enough people, we probably would only call on each person once or twice a year. Also, if you could lend a hand on the day of the funeral by helping at the chapter house for a few hours, it would also be a great help. Please contact Brenda Burditt on 0407 441 995. Any help would be so appreciated not only by the group, but also by the bereaved family at the time when most needed. Thank you.

LEGION OF MARY meet in the Chapter House from 10.30am each Wednesday. New members are very welcome.

SERRA CLUB: The Serra Club will gather in the Cathedral on Thursday 1 July at 4.45pm for Rosary and 5.00pm Mass followed by their meeting in Chapter House. All welcome. Apologies can be made to Claire Everard on 5144 4905.

31 CLUB REMINDER for 28 June to 4 July. Please pray for vocations.

SCHOOLS Wishing a nice rest to our School Principals, Secondary and Primary Teachers and all the students Secondary and Primary during this school break. Stay safe and warm and rest well.

SOCIAL JUSTICE STATEMENT 2021-2022:

Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor.

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday on 29 August. The Australian Bishop's Social Justice Statement, Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor, invites us to join in responding to Pope Francis' invitation to take a seven-year journey towards total ecological sustainability guided by seven Laudato Si' Goals. The Statement provides theological foundations to ground and inspire our efforts to care for creation while responding to the needs of the disadvantaged and excluded. More information: ACBC Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace. www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au or (02) 6201 9845. The Statement will be launched online on 5 August. The ACBC invite the whole Catholic community to join with them in taking up Pope Francis' invitation to a seven-year journey towards ecological sustainability guided by seven Laudato Si' Goals.

These Goals are:- Response to (1) the cry of the earth; (2) ecological economics; (3) sustainable lifestyles; (4) ecological spirituality, (5) ecological education, (6) community engagement, (7) participatory action.

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED Australia: In areas of crisis, churches are often destroyed by violence. Where the faith is growing new churches are needed. ACN supports the reconstruction of churches in these areas because a church is the centre of the life of faith and even the smallest chapel provides people with hope and a spiritual home. ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

All peoples, clap your hands.
Cry to God with shouts of joy!

FIRST READING:

A reading from the book of Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R.)

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R.)

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing,
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

SECOND READING :

A reading from the 2nd letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I will be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Gospel of the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
As though you have already come,
I embrace You and Unite myself entirely to You:
never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
