Third Sunday of Advent, Year B 16 - 17 December 2023

Who am I?

This third Sunday in Advent is called the Gaudete Sunday or Rejoice Sunday. One may ask why it is called Gaudete Sunday. It is called so because the birth of Jesus as Man is very near and his coming will bring liberation to many who are held captive in various ways. The good news is that when Jesus comes, all our worries and concerns will be done with, and our hearts will be filled with joy.

In the gospel reading of today taking from John 1:19-28, we see that attention is drawn to the person and mission of John the Baptist. We know that John was the forerunner of Jesus who was preparing the hearts of the people towards the coming of the Messiah, but the people wanted to be sure of his identity, so the Jews sent some Priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he did not deny but declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ,' 'Well then,' they asked 'Are you Elijah?' He replied, 'I am not'. 'Are you the Prophet?' He said, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you?' We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself? John replied, I am, as Isaiah prophesied: A voice of the one that cries in the wilderness: prepare a way for the Lord. Make his paths straight. He was humble enough to tell them that he was not the Christ, he was contented with who he was and would not claim to be who he was not. He went further to say that he was not even fit to untie the strap of his sandals. John did his part in preparing the way for the Lord and it was time for him to give way to the Master of the day. One striking thing about John the Baptist was that he was happy with his position as the forerunner of Jesus. He was a fulfilled man because he was aware of his identity and in touch with himself.

This is an invitation for all to ask this same question, 'Who am I?', 'Who are you?' We all need the humility of John the Baptist to be true to who we truly are and be happy to let go of what we so much cling to, even when it is obvious that we are not what we claim to be. When we are in touch with who we really are, we will be happy and joyful with ourselves and with others.

As we approach the birth of Jesus in a week's time, the prophecy of Isaiah will be fulfilled just as Jesus himself re-read it in the gospel of Luke 4:18-19. "The Spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for he has anointed me. He has sent me to bring the Goodnews to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives, and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the year of God's favour". We are called by the Church to rejoice because our liberation is near at hand, and we know the one who is coming and what he will bring. He will heal us of our spiritual blindness, of our spiritual poverty and freedom to all who are in captivity of sin. Jesus is close to the broken hearted and those whose Spirit is crushed he will save. What an encouraging word to our world that is filled with sufferings of one kind or the other. This is the message that the coming of Jesus at Christmas will bring to us.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice! Indeed, the Lord is near.

FIRST READING:

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 61:1-2. 10-11

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison: to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord. 'I exult for joy in the Lord, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity, like a bridegroom wearing his wreath, like a bride adorned in her jewels. 'For as the earth makes fresh things grow, as a garden makes seeds spring up, so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of nations.'

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: My soul rejoices in my God.

My soul glorifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour. He looks on his servant in her nothingness; henceforth all ages will call me blessed. (R.)

The Almighty works marvels for me. Holy his name! His mercy is from age to age, on those who fear him. (R.)

He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty.

He protects Israel, his servant, remembering his mercy. (R.)

SECOND READING:

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 5:16-24

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus. Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything - hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil.

May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you.

The word of the Lord, All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

GOSPEL:

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 1:6-8,19-28

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light. This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked, 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not,' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied:

a voice that cries in the wilderness:

Make a straight way for the Lord.'

Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you - unknown to you – the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

The Gospel of the Lord. All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear. Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.
